"Turquoise Pendant" by Jean Menden

American turquoise is the most popular gem in this country. The stone I chose is from the No. 8 mine in Eureka County, Nevada.
I set the stone in sterling silver using traditional silversmithing methods. My component parts and the embellishment of multi-layered leaves are handmade.
I have oxidized it which is the traditional method of presenting American turquoise in sterling silver.

Franz Allbert Richter

Oct. 16, 1942 - Dec. 2, 2022

In memory of our friend and artist

Franz was an artist and a friend to many in our area for over 50 years.
He did pencil drawing, pen & ink, stoneware folk figures.
Thanks to Franz Allbert Richter since 2004 for his graphic design of the Meander brochure and poster. His contributions to the Meander have been invaluable.

Thank you to all who have contributed to the success of Meander 2023!
